

Fellowship & Faith

1. What for you are the best things about community life where you live?
2. How would you describe the feelings you have for your own fellowship?
Has your level of devotion to your fellowship changed over the past year, & if so, in what ways & why?
In what ways do you think enabling people to grow in their devotion to their fellowship can be nurtured?
3. What do you think the optimum size for a fellowship group is, & why?
How might a fellowship benefit from meeting in homes as compared to church buildings, & vice versa?
What lessons can we draw from our response for our gathered life going forward?
4. What do you think this 'favour' looked like?
To what extent do you think your fellowship enjoys the favour of your wider community?
What are the benefits & challenges that come with enjoying local favour?
5. To what extent do you think this principle of shared ownership & the pooling of resources is practical today?
What practices might characterize a generous, sharing fellowship in our culture?
God loves a cheerful giver – how might cheerful generosity be nurtured in our lives?
